This is a Windows 3.11 Screensaver. The password, which is 4 random characters, can be found on the 2nd screen of the wizard picture. If you get it, send me a PM. If you dont get it in one try, then keep trying till you get it. The picture is of another screen (see below) that lets you see the password. Edit: There was a piece of code in the hidden menus that randomly picked a number from

1-3, and if that number matched the password, you would see the wizard picture. Unfortunately, with Windows 3.11, the number picker doesn't work properly. Therefore, if you get the password, send me a PM with it and I will send you a program (in notepad) which allows you to open that picture. I did this because it's easier for me to keep track of everything than PM everyone. If you don't get the password, keep trying till you do. I got this screensaver set up correctly when I got the password from the wizard picture I sent to sjwisch. It went from the wizard picture to the other screen which let me see the password in the invisible menus. It then would take you back to the wizard picture. If you can get this going, it will be a great screensaver. Thanks!

Today a friend of mine was helping me to put together a load of new screensavers. He got the password but at first the picture won't open up, when he changed the password, it then worked. Not sure how to get the picture to open up as the menu keeps closing down, any help on this? Wow, thanks everybody. I finally got it, but I have a problem: I have the password, but it goes to the wizard picture, so how do I get it to go to the menu again? Thanks in advance! EDIT: I got the password, but when I go back to the wizard picture, 77a5ca646e
